

Top Twenty Recommended Places to Visit

According to Barossa Wine Traveller by Tyson Stelzer and Grant Dodd

We have asked the Barossa's 150 wine producers to list their favourite places to visit in the Barossa. The very best of the best, most highly recommended places, are worthy of a place in our 'top twenty' list. This is your short list of the best places to visit in the Barossa that aren't wineries or cellar doors.

The top twenty places to visit in the Barossa, as recommended by the wine folk of the Barossa, are:

1. Barossa Farmers Market
2. Apex Bakery
3. Appellation Restaurant
4. Mengler's Hill Lookout
5. 1918 Bistro & Grill
6. Schulz's Butchers
7. Taste Eden Valley
8. Kaiser Stuhl Conservation Park
9. Maggie Beer's Farm Shop
10. Vintners Bar & Grill
11. Tanunda Club
12. Barossa Brewing Company
13. Greenock Creek Tavern
14. Angaston Roaring 40's Café
15. Blond Coffee
16. Eden Valley Hotel
17. Linke's Bakery & Tea Rooms
18. Murdock Restaurant
19. Novotel Barossa Valley Resort
20. Tanunda Pines Golf Club

For full details of each of these places, including addresses, contact details and opening hours, refer to the Directory of Recommended Places to Visit in Barossa Wine Traveller. This directory features 100 of the Barossa's best restaurants, accommodation and entertainment venues according to the local wine folk who know and love them.

